

Group Work

1. Create two simple pages app that supports switching between light and dark themes.
The application should use the provider package for state management and use SharedPreferences to persist the user's theme preference across app restarts.

